

St. Mary's Center for Children

Presents

PARENT SUPPORT GROUPS

It is the aim of St. Mary's Center for Children to offer support to parents and caregivers of children with developmental, academic or social concerns. We will meet the third Thursday of each month from 5pm to 6pm. You are encouraged to bring topics for discussion and suggestions for speakers. Feel free to volunteer to lead a meeting and become a mentor for a newcomer. We look forward to seeing you.

WHERE: St. Mary's Center for Children, classroom 117

WHEN: From 5pm to 6pm every third Thursday evening of each month from 5pm to 6pm

Please contact group facilitator, Family Advocate Kim Mann, B.S., for questions or to inquire about the speaker for the month at 812-485-7397

Remember, the success of a good group depends on what you contribute as a member.

St. Mary's Center for Children

3900 Washington Ave.
Evansville, IN 47750
812-485-7425